

CHICAGO|FASHION|RESOURCE

The need for a centralized resource to connect Chicago's growing fashion community has led to the creation of a new City website. Showcasing the talented fashion community here in Chicago and enabling it to thrive is the goal of www.ChicagoFashionResource.com. The new site is meant to help those in all areas of the industry connect with each other and work together. Whether you are looking for a manufacturer, pattern maker, seamstress, sales rep, or boutique, ChicagoFashionResource.com can help! The site will also be a key portal for consumers to find the latest and greatest in Chicago Fashion.

If you are a member of the fashion community here in Chicago not already listed on this site and would like to be, please fill out the form below and email back to Taylor.Wilson@cityofchicago.org.

If you are a boutique, a fashion or accessory designer, a service provider to the industry such as a seamstress, pattern maker, or work in marketing and pr for fashion, you are welcome to provide information for ChicagoFashionResource.com.

To participate: please submit your information along with images of your most recent collections, boutiques, and business information to be considered for the site. Images of your work must be in High Res. JPEG format (no smaller than 250 pixels, no larger than 3MB)
