

Sara Jo Cullen

1705 N. Mohawk Street Apt. #503
Chicago, IL 60614
608-359-1198

cullens@uwstout.edu

---

EMPLOYMENT OBJECTIVE

Objective is to obtain a challenging and rewarding position in Apparel Design.

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

Jill Stuart

Summer 2007, New York, NY

- Assisted designers on inspirations, trends and sketches for future lines.
- Performed office support tasks (i.e., photocopying, filing, posting or proofing data)
- Worked with pattern makers, sourcing department, and personal relations help whenever needed. (i.e., sourcing fabric, putting together look books, sewing, advertising, styling, and helping with New York Fashion Week show)

Guess, Inc.

Summer 2005, Broomfield, CO

- Worked and maintained the sales floor
- Listened to and fulfilled customer needs
- Provided extra help wherever needed, team player

Victoria's Secret

Summer 2004, Janesville, WI

- Helped customers with fit of garments and other concerns
- Responsible for opening the store and stocking inventory
- Assembled merchandise and window displays to stay on trend

COMPUTER SKILLS

- Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop; Karat Cad Assyst/Bullmer pattern program
- Microsoft Office Professional Suite
- Teaching Assistant for CAD Classes

RELEVANT SKILLS

- Works well both individually and in group situations for team building
- Punctual, diligent, and courteous; meets deadlines in a timely manner
- Openness to learning new skills and enhance talents

ACTIVITIES AND AWARDS

- Member of the Stout Apparel Society (SAS); Headed Committee
- Audience Choice Award Nominee at 2008 SAS Fashion Show
- American Association of Textile Chemist and Colorist (AATCC) Print and Product Design Competition second place winner

EDUCATION

University of Wisconsin-Stout December 2008 graduate

Bachelor of Science - Apparel Design and Development

London College of Fashion- Short Courses Spring 2009

REFERENCES Available upon request