

JAMIE VISHNAUSKI

(513) 312-2867

jamievishnauski@gmail.com

Work experience	2004-2009	University of Cincinnati, Ohio College of Design, Architecture, Art, and Planning. Major: Bachelor's of Science Degree in Fashion Design G.P.A.: 3.673.
	July 2009-Present	Proctor and Gamble, Cincinnati, Ohio Title: Baby care Design Contractor: Pampers Lighthouse Design for 2020 Designed and constructed immersion pods that create environments that display the different trends of the "innovation mother," bought and selected products that correlate with each trend while staying within a set budget, constructed inspiration boards in Adobe Photoshop, diaper research, designed and prototyped innovative cloth and disposable diapers, presented my diaper concepts to the section head of design, created vector art in Adobe Illustrator, and gathered inspirational images to design and assemble an exhibition booth for Pride 2009.
	September 2008-December 2008	Abercrombie & Fitch Home Office, New Albany, Ohio Title: Abercrombie Girl's Outerwear Design Intern Prepared presentation boards for meetings, developed colorways for garment styles, illustrated flat and detail sketches on Adobe Illustrator, data entry on trim sheets in Web PDM, matched thread colors, attended and participated in fit sessions, trend research for new style ideas, and designed garments.
	March 2008-June 2008	Gap Inc., San Francisco, California Title: Old Navy Womens Sweaters Design Intern Created flat sketches on Illustrator and by hand, independently designed applique on Photoshop, BOMs and data entry in Excel, developed mood boards, presentation preparation, measured garments for spec sheets, assembled color cards.
	September 2007-December 2007	Garan Incorporated, New York, New York Title: Girls Faded Glory Design Intern Developed flat sketches on Illustrator, sketched store displays on Illustrator, researched color coordination for graphics, data entry in Excel, went shopping for trim samples to send to oversea vendors, elaborate presentation preparation, garment specs, and created print books organized by print technique.
	March 2007-June 2007	Ruff Hewn, New York, New York Title: Womens Design Intern Created women's and boy's flat sketches on Illustrator, developed graphics for t-shirts on Illustrator, developed a new package log system that organized and increased efficiencies by keeping track of items shipped between offices, matched color chips, shopped for new trims, sewed mock up shirt details, attended team meetings, and constructed trend/color boards.
	September 2006-December 2006	Fossil Home Office, Richardson, Texas Title: Fossil Apparel Design Intern Created and sketched key looks/designs that were used in the Fossil Catalog, sketched croquis on Illustrator, developed linesheets on Microsoft Excel, trend research and boards, inspiration shopping, flat sketches on Illustrator, designed jackets and shirts that were selected and moved forward by the design team, created a denim packet displaying each fit and ideal styling, and started a fabric log in Microsoft Excel to enable easier fabric identification.
	April 2006-June 2006	Abercrombie & Fitch Home Office, New Albany, Ohio Title: Abercrombie Girl's Knits Design Intern Abercrombie Girl's Bottoms Design Intern Dyed and constructed mock-ups of garments for important presentations, prepared boards for meetings, developed colorways, illustrated flat and detail sketches on Adobe Illustrator, data entry on trim sheets in Web PDM, created style sheets in Excel to keep track of style numbers, matched thread colors, attended fit sessions, and trend research.
Activities/ Awards	Activities:	National Scholars Program, participated in the St. Vincent De Paul Fashion Show, thrift shop research for restyling apparel, break dancing club, designing/constructing clothing and other lifestyle products to vend at independent craft shows, and volunteer at the League for Animal Welfare
	Awards and Scholarships:	Dean's List and Achievers Scholarship.
Special Skills	Computer:	Microsoft Word, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, FormZ (3D program) Web PDM and Microsoft Excel.
	Design:	Fashion illustrations, pattern making, sewing and flat sketching, display design and construction, color and pattern coordination..
	Business:	Strong teamwork, communication, organization and problem solving skills.
References and portfolio upon request.

Current address: 6252 Hollow Wood Cr. Loveland, OH 45140 (relocating to Chicago)